Teutons in Overwhelming Numbers Await at the Gates the Signal to Lower the Flag of Russia and Take Possession

(By Associated Press.)
LONDON, July 30.—Warsaw, the third city of Russia, the goal of the Germans in the East, that they have been striving for since October, is at the last throes of abandonment. Germans in overwhelming numbers are at the gates of the Polish capital. Dispatches say that further resistance is unwise. They are discounted. Not only in France and England, but in Russia, the fall of Warsaw is expected hourly, and the problem now is to move the Russian armies intact, threatened as they are from the south and north. Hope is not for the safety of Warsaw, but for continued cohesion of the Russian army. The Warsaw postoffice has already been shifted to some point eastward. The Russians are stripping the city of everything of military value. According to Berlin, plans are completed for the triumphant entrance of the Kaiser.

CAMP OF PHONOLITE IS AGAIN WAKING UP

WORK TO START ON LONG TUNNEL—APPLY FOR POSTOFFICE—DISTRICT LOOKING GOOD

(From Fallon Eagle)
H. W. Brunner was in town Thursday buying rails and supplies for driving a 900-foot crosscut tunnel for the Phonolite Silent Friend Mining company at Phonolite, near here.
Mr. Brunner says that the district is looking better now than for some years past and application has been made to the postoffice department to reopen the postoffice, which was formerly known as Phonolite.
Mr. Brunner says this is the first time in the history of the camp that money has been available for working properties and that he has $25,000 for developing his own and the Silent Friend. His property is known as the Phonolite Paymaster. The Phonolite Silent Friend has a 900-foot shaft, at the bottom of which is a 30-inch streak of gold ore which Mr. Brunner states will run $24 to the ton. The crosscut tunnel on which he is preparing to start work will cut this ledge at a depth of 341 feet.
Effe & Bills recently shipped 8 1/2 tons by way of Fallon, which they stated is as good as the ore they shipped last fall which ran $480 a ton.
Mr. Brunner states that he had a mill run of his dump material, which showed a value of $23.75 per ton.
Out of 30 assays four ran less than $10 and they ran $5 and better, and the rest ran from $23 to $280.
Mr. Brunner says there is a territory about two miles square that is mighty good. He got his supplies and left in his auto Thursday.
C. D. ASHER arrived today from Honolulu to visit Harry Pierce for several weeks. Later he will leave for Modena, Utah, where he will take charge of a government weather bureau. Mrs. Asher arrived about a week ago.

BROTHERS OF BECKER WERE IN TONOPAH

HOWARD WAS A BLACKSMITH AND WAS BURIED HERE ABOUT EIGHT YEARS AGO

Local interest attaches to the case of Lieutenant Becker, who was executed at Sing Sing this morning. Both brothers of the murderer have been in Tonopah. When J. E. Peck, assistant chief of police, was in the blacksmithing business in this town in 1906, he wired to Reno for a blacksmith and Howard Becker was sent out. He worked here for fourteen months. He built the shop at the Summerfield & Johnson corral. He died and is buried in the Tonopah cemetery.
The other brother, Paul, who is married to a divorced wife of Lieutenant Becker, and who is also a blacksmith, came here from either Reno or Winnemucca to attend the funeral.

Donald G. Means, postoffice inspector for the San Francisco division, arrived here Wednesday evening, accompanied by J. W. Stewart, his wife and Mrs. J. P. Tregloan, from Ely. The party left for Ely the early part of last week. The first day they went to the Hot Creek and Duckwater region. The roads, Mr. Means said, were very good. From there they made their way to Ely. Several days were spent in that city on official business.
From Ely the party went to Sharp and the road in that section of the country is one to be recommended.

TOKIO, July 30.—The Japanese cabinet, headed by Premier Okuma, has resigned. The resignation of the cabinet followed that of Viscount Oura, minister of the interior, after an investigation of the bribery charges resulting from the parliamentary elections in March. Oura's resignation was sanctioned by the emperor after a report by Okuma. Okuma, believing he should hold himself responsible for the acts of his cabinet members, was the first to tender his resignation. The elder statesmen will meet tomorrow and it is believed they will recommend that Okuma be invited to retain the office of premier and reconstruct his cabinet.

SING SING PRISON, July 30.—Becker was put to death in the electric chair this morning for the killing of Herman Rosenthal, a New York gambler. The former police lieutenant retained his composure and protested his innocence to the last. He went to his death with the photograph of his wife pinned on his shirt over his heart. Three shocks were given before the physicians pronounced Becker dead, at 5:55 a. m.

Becker sat up all night on the edge of his cot, talking with Deputy Warden Johnson. "As I've got to face it, I'll meet it quietly, without trouble to anyone," he said. Father Cashion, the prison priest, and Father Curp of New York came to administer the last rites before the time set for the execution. They remained with the condemned man until the end. In his last message, given to the priests, he said: "I am not guilty by deed, or conspiracy, or in any other way of the death of Rosenthal. I am sacrificed to my friends. Bear this message to the world and to my friends. Amen." He was mumbling a death prayer as the executioner jammed the switch. The first shock lasted a minute. Becker had previously given a statement to the reporters, maintaining his innocence, and in which he stated that he was proud to have been the husband of the "purest, noblest woman that ever lived—Helen Becker." His wife bade him goodbye after midnight, and returned to her home in the Bronx.

NEW YORK, July 30.—An undertaker was sent from this city to get the body of Becker. The funeral will be held Monday. After a solemn requiem mass, interment will take place at Woodlawn cemetery.

The murder was the swift culmination of sensational charges made a few days before by Rosenthal against Becker in which Rosenthal asserted that Becker, then head of the strong arm squad of detectives, freely sold police protection and had accumulated thousands of dollars of graft money. Rosenthal went further than that.
